

The Evening Herald

Albuquerque, New Mexico, Friday, September 22, 1916.

THIRTEEN-CENT.

THE EVENING HERALD
VOL. 7, NO. 179.

VON MACKSEN BREAKS ENEMY'S RESISTANCE AND TIDE OF BATTLE SWINGS TO TEUTONS

Central Powers Seem to Have Best of Fighting Against Russians and Rumanians in Province of Dobruja.

DESPERATE CLASHES IN THE CARPATHIANS

German Infantry Advancing in Waves Beats Back the French from Positions Recently Captured North of Somme River.

It was only last night that an official statement from the German high command declared that the tide of battle had swung in favor of the Central Powers. The statement was based on reports from the front which indicated that the German forces had broken through the French lines in the province of Dobruja, and that the tide of battle had swung in their favor.

The German forces had broken through the French lines in the province of Dobruja, and that the tide of battle had swung in their favor. The German forces had broken through the French lines in the province of Dobruja, and that the tide of battle had swung in their favor.

The German forces had broken through the French lines in the province of Dobruja, and that the tide of battle had swung in their favor. The German forces had broken through the French lines in the province of Dobruja, and that the tide of battle had swung in their favor.

The German forces had broken through the French lines in the province of Dobruja, and that the tide of battle had swung in their favor. The German forces had broken through the French lines in the province of Dobruja, and that the tide of battle had swung in their favor.

GERMANS ADMIT LOSS

London, Sept. 22.—The German high command has admitted a loss of 10,000 men in the fighting in the province of Dobruja. The loss was suffered in the fighting in the province of Dobruja, and that the tide of battle had swung in their favor.

DEEP COMBS ON DOVER

London, Sept. 22.—The British high command has reported that the German forces have dug deep combs on the Dover front. The combs are deep and wide, and are intended to facilitate the movement of German tanks and heavy artillery.

Weak Attacks

London, Sept. 22.—The British high command has reported that the German forces have made weak attacks on the Dover front. The attacks were repulsed, and the German forces suffered heavy losses.

French and Serbs Score

Paris, Sept. 22.—The French high command has reported that the French and Serbian forces have scored a victory in the fighting in the province of Dobruja. The forces have broken through the German lines, and have captured several villages.

Additional Troops To Move to Border

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has announced that additional troops will be moved to the border. The troops are being moved from the United States to the border, and will be used in the fighting in the province of Dobruja.

THREATS OF GENERAL STRIKE IN NEW YORK LEAD TO OFFICIALS TAKING PRECAUTIONS

All Branches of the City Government Charged With Enforcing the Laws Prepare for New Outbreaks of Mob Violence.

MAYOR IS DETERMINED TO SUPPRESS DISORDER

6,700 Policemen Have Been Disposed at Strategic Points; Unionists to Vote This Afternoon on Walkout Question.

It was only last night that a report was received from New York City that the city was in a state of emergency. The report was based on threats of a general strike in New York City, and on the possibility of mob violence.

The city was in a state of emergency, and the city government was charged with enforcing the laws. The city government was charged with enforcing the laws, and the city government was charged with enforcing the laws.

Minor Fighting

London, Sept. 22.—The British high command has reported that there has been minor fighting in the fighting in the province of Dobruja. The fighting was minor, and the British forces suffered no losses.

Paris Official

Paris, Sept. 22.—The French high command has reported that there has been minor fighting in the fighting in the province of Dobruja. The fighting was minor, and the French forces suffered no losses.

Bulgars Break Word

London, Sept. 22.—The British high command has reported that the Bulgarian forces have broken their word. The Bulgarian forces have broken their word, and the Bulgarian forces have broken their word.

London Bombard

London, Sept. 22.—The British high command has reported that the German forces have bombed London. The bombing was done by German aircraft, and the German forces have bombed London.

Italian Progress

Rome, Sept. 22.—The Italian high command has reported that the Italian forces have made progress in the fighting in the province of Dobruja. The Italian forces have made progress, and the Italian forces have made progress.

Rumored That Potash Discovered in Cuba

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that there is a rumor that potash has been discovered in Cuba. The rumor is that potash has been discovered in Cuba, and the rumor is that potash has been discovered in Cuba.

Lansing Says Report Is Wholly Untrue

Washington, Sept. 22.—The State Department has reported that the report that potash has been discovered in Cuba is wholly untrue. The report is wholly untrue, and the report is wholly untrue.

Uprising Reported in Greek Macedonia

London, Sept. 22.—The British high command has reported that there has been an uprising in Greek Macedonia. The uprising was reported, and the uprising was reported.

CARRANZA TROOPS ARE SAID TO BE PURSUING VILLA AND HIS BAND

Reports Are That Villistas Are Being Chased by de Facto Soldiers; Trevino's Wounded Arm Makes a Rapid Recovery.

FUNSTON GIVES FULL CREDENCE TO REPORT OF CHIHUAHUA RAID REACHING CAPITAL

Believes the United States War Department Has Been Furnished With Facts Concerning Villa's Latest Attack.

It was only last night that a report was received from Mexico City that the Carranza troops were pursuing Villa and his band. The report was based on reports from the front, and on the possibility of mob violence.

The Carranza troops were pursuing Villa and his band, and the Carranza troops were pursuing Villa and his band. The Carranza troops were pursuing Villa and his band, and the Carranza troops were pursuing Villa and his band.

BELL'S INFORMATION IS FROM RELIABLE SOURCE

Religion Also Has an Inning in Army Camps; Little General Mixes With Baptist Preacher, Soldiers Not "Lost."

It was only last night that a report was received from Mexico City that the Carranza troops were pursuing Villa and his band. The report was based on reports from the front, and on the possibility of mob violence.

HUGHES SPENDS BUSY DAY IN PURSUIT OF THE INDIANA VOTER

Short Stops, Station Crows, Brass Bands and Rear Platform Oratory Enable the Candidate to Pass Time Pleasantly.

It was only last night that a report was received from Indianapolis that Hughes had spent a busy day in the pursuit of the Indiana voter. Hughes had spent a busy day, and Hughes had spent a busy day.

Yeoman Injured in Big Gun Explosion

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that a yeoman was injured in a big gun explosion. The yeoman was injured, and the yeoman was injured.

No, Count, You Have Been Misinformed

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that the report that a yeoman was injured in a big gun explosion is no count. The report is no count, and the report is no count.

It's a Bad Season For Private Banks

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that it is a bad season for private banks. The season is bad, and the season is bad.

Additional Troops To Move to Border

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that additional troops will be moved to the border. The troops are being moved from the United States to the border, and will be used in the fighting in the province of Dobruja.

SOLDIERS AFTER THE BATTLES FIND MANY RIDICULOUS THINGS TO CAUSE LAUGHTER

Contrary to the Prevailing Opinion, the European Struggle Has Its Humorous Side to Relieve Monotony of Fighting.

INCIDENTS IN MIDST OF CHARGES ARE RECALLED

After Resting Troops Gather Behind Trenches and Recount the Tragic as Well as Ludicrous Scenes of Conflict.

It was only last night that a report was received from the front that soldiers were laughing at the ridiculous things they had seen in the battles. The soldiers were laughing, and the soldiers were laughing.

Baker Skeptical

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that Baker is skeptical. Baker is skeptical, and Baker is skeptical.

Villa Present in Spirit

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that Villa is present in spirit. Villa is present in spirit, and Villa is present in spirit.

Chicago Attorney Is Charged With Perjury

Chicago, Sept. 22.—James R. Ward, attorney for Edward W. Morrison, has been charged with perjury. Ward has been charged with perjury, and Ward has been charged with perjury.

Reliable, Bell Says

It was only last night that a report was received from Mexico City that the Carranza troops were pursuing Villa and his band. The report was based on reports from the front, and on the possibility of mob violence.

Yeoman Injured in Big Gun Explosion

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that a yeoman was injured in a big gun explosion. The yeoman was injured, and the yeoman was injured.

No, Count, You Have Been Misinformed

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that the report that a yeoman was injured in a big gun explosion is no count. The report is no count, and the report is no count.

It's a Bad Season For Private Banks

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that it is a bad season for private banks. The season is bad, and the season is bad.

Additional Troops To Move to Border

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that additional troops will be moved to the border. The troops are being moved from the United States to the border, and will be used in the fighting in the province of Dobruja.

SOLDIERS AFTER THE BATTLES FIND MANY RIDICULOUS THINGS TO CAUSE LAUGHTER

Contrary to the Prevailing Opinion, the European Struggle Has Its Humorous Side to Relieve Monotony of Fighting.

INCIDENTS IN MIDST OF CHARGES ARE RECALLED

After Resting Troops Gather Behind Trenches and Recount the Tragic as Well as Ludicrous Scenes of Conflict.

It was only last night that a report was received from the front that soldiers were laughing at the ridiculous things they had seen in the battles. The soldiers were laughing, and the soldiers were laughing.

Baker Skeptical

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that Baker is skeptical. Baker is skeptical, and Baker is skeptical.

Villa Present in Spirit

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that Villa is present in spirit. Villa is present in spirit, and Villa is present in spirit.

Chicago Attorney Is Charged With Perjury

Chicago, Sept. 22.—James R. Ward, attorney for Edward W. Morrison, has been charged with perjury. Ward has been charged with perjury, and Ward has been charged with perjury.

Reliable, Bell Says

It was only last night that a report was received from Mexico City that the Carranza troops were pursuing Villa and his band. The report was based on reports from the front, and on the possibility of mob violence.

Yeoman Injured in Big Gun Explosion

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that a yeoman was injured in a big gun explosion. The yeoman was injured, and the yeoman was injured.

No, Count, You Have Been Misinformed

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that the report that a yeoman was injured in a big gun explosion is no count. The report is no count, and the report is no count.

It's a Bad Season For Private Banks

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that it is a bad season for private banks. The season is bad, and the season is bad.

Additional Troops To Move to Border

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that additional troops will be moved to the border. The troops are being moved from the United States to the border, and will be used in the fighting in the province of Dobruja.

SOLDIERS AFTER THE BATTLES FIND MANY RIDICULOUS THINGS TO CAUSE LAUGHTER

Contrary to the Prevailing Opinion, the European Struggle Has Its Humorous Side to Relieve Monotony of Fighting.

INCIDENTS IN MIDST OF CHARGES ARE RECALLED

After Resting Troops Gather Behind Trenches and Recount the Tragic as Well as Ludicrous Scenes of Conflict.

It was only last night that a report was received from the front that soldiers were laughing at the ridiculous things they had seen in the battles. The soldiers were laughing, and the soldiers were laughing.

Baker Skeptical

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that Baker is skeptical. Baker is skeptical, and Baker is skeptical.

Villa Present in Spirit

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that Villa is present in spirit. Villa is present in spirit, and Villa is present in spirit.

Chicago Attorney Is Charged With Perjury

Chicago, Sept. 22.—James R. Ward, attorney for Edward W. Morrison, has been charged with perjury. Ward has been charged with perjury, and Ward has been charged with perjury.

Reliable, Bell Says

It was only last night that a report was received from Mexico City that the Carranza troops were pursuing Villa and his band. The report was based on reports from the front, and on the possibility of mob violence.

Yeoman Injured in Big Gun Explosion

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that a yeoman was injured in a big gun explosion. The yeoman was injured, and the yeoman was injured.

No, Count, You Have Been Misinformed

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that the report that a yeoman was injured in a big gun explosion is no count. The report is no count, and the report is no count.

It's a Bad Season For Private Banks

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that it is a bad season for private banks. The season is bad, and the season is bad.

Additional Troops To Move to Border

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that additional troops will be moved to the border. The troops are being moved from the United States to the border, and will be used in the fighting in the province of Dobruja.

SOLDIERS AFTER THE BATTLES FIND MANY RIDICULOUS THINGS TO CAUSE LAUGHTER

Contrary to the Prevailing Opinion, the European Struggle Has Its Humorous Side to Relieve Monotony of Fighting.

INCIDENTS IN MIDST OF CHARGES ARE RECALLED

After Resting Troops Gather Behind Trenches and Recount the Tragic as Well as Ludicrous Scenes of Conflict.

It was only last night that a report was received from the front that soldiers were laughing at the ridiculous things they had seen in the battles. The soldiers were laughing, and the soldiers were laughing.

Baker Skeptical

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that Baker is skeptical. Baker is skeptical, and Baker is skeptical.

Villa Present in Spirit

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that Villa is present in spirit. Villa is present in spirit, and Villa is present in spirit.

Chicago Attorney Is Charged With Perjury

Chicago, Sept. 22.—James R. Ward, attorney for Edward W. Morrison, has been charged with perjury. Ward has been charged with perjury, and Ward has been charged with perjury.

Reliable, Bell Says

It was only last night that a report was received from Mexico City that the Carranza troops were pursuing Villa and his band. The report was based on reports from the front, and on the possibility of mob violence.

Yeoman Injured in Big Gun Explosion

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that a yeoman was injured in a big gun explosion. The yeoman was injured, and the yeoman was injured.

No, Count, You Have Been Misinformed

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that the report that a yeoman was injured in a big gun explosion is no count. The report is no count, and the report is no count.

It's a Bad Season For Private Banks

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that it is a bad season for private banks. The season is bad, and the season is bad.

Additional Troops To Move to Border

Washington, Sept. 22.—The War Department has reported that additional troops will be moved to the border. The troops are being moved from the United States to the border, and will be used in the fighting in the province of Dobruja.